

The former Armenian refugee Anahid Vartazarian from Australia meeting her friends in Germany

Armenians in Hofheim

INFO

The Armenian Anahid Vartazarian from Australia met during her Europe trip German friends in Limburg on September 4, 2005.

17 years ago she had left with her family the city of Hofheim near Frankfurt-on-Main for Sydney. Having fled as Armenian Christians from Iran they were able as asylum seekers in Germany to prepare their immigration to Australia.

After seeing her brother in Sweden and her sister in the Netherlands she wanted to meet Regina and Hartwig Weise and Herbert Leuninger from the former supporting group PAX CHRISTI in Hofheim.

siehe auch: Armenians in Hofheim – Former refugee visits Germany again

The Cathedral of Limburg, a city between Cologne and Frankfurt-on-Main

Anahid's visit 2005

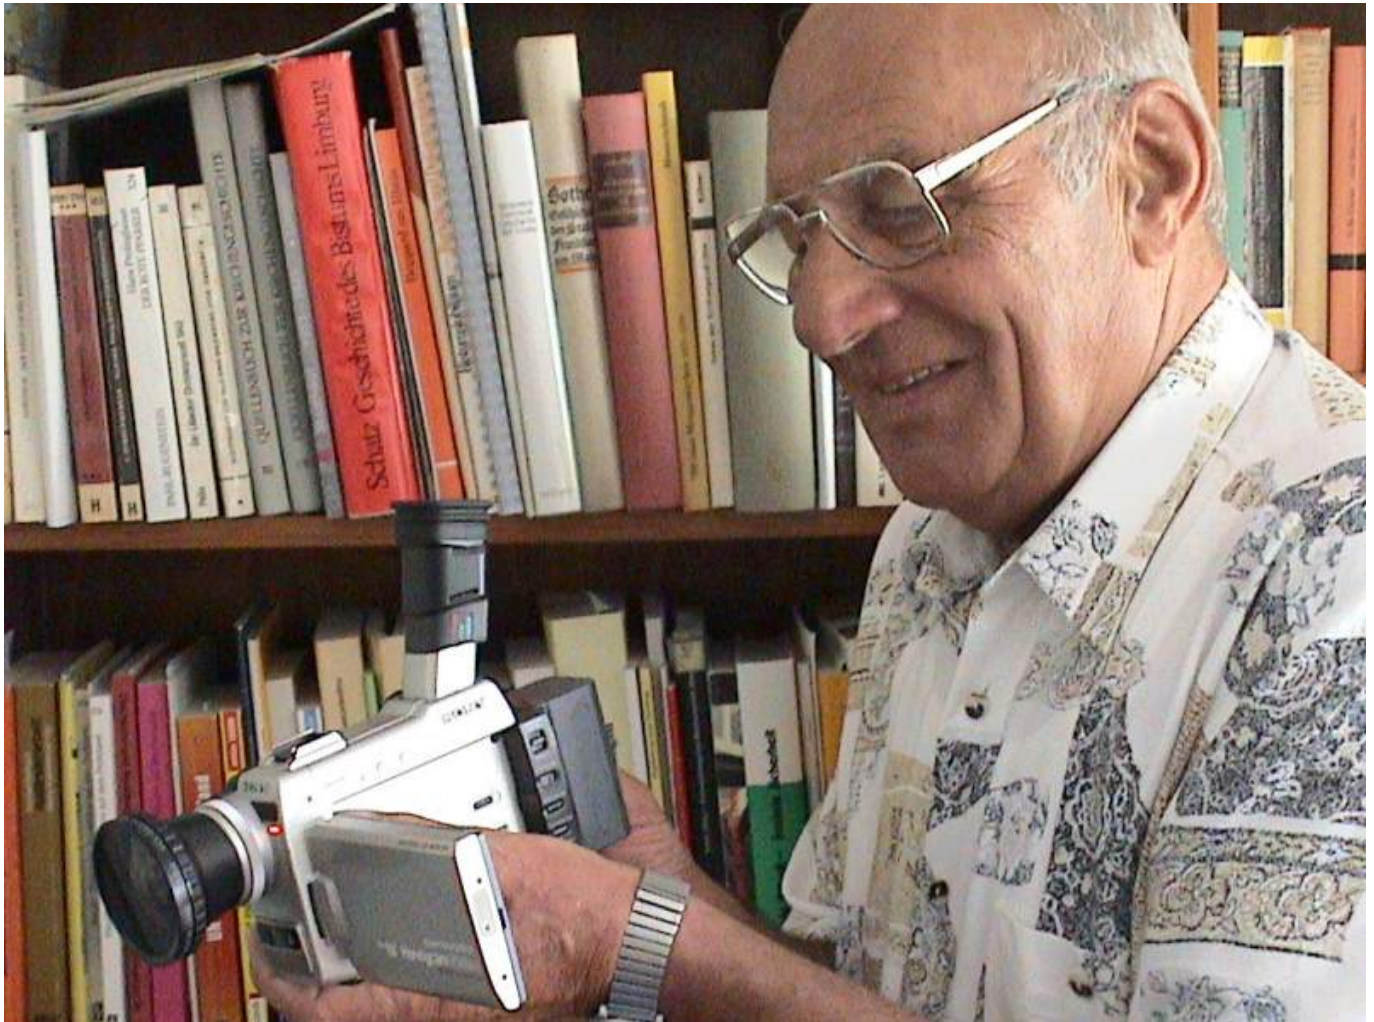

Anahid Vartazarian with Regina (l.) and Hartwig Weise (r.) from the former PAX CHRISTI group in Hofheim

Anahid with Regina (l.) and Herbert Leuninger, also friend with Anahid's family in Hofheim

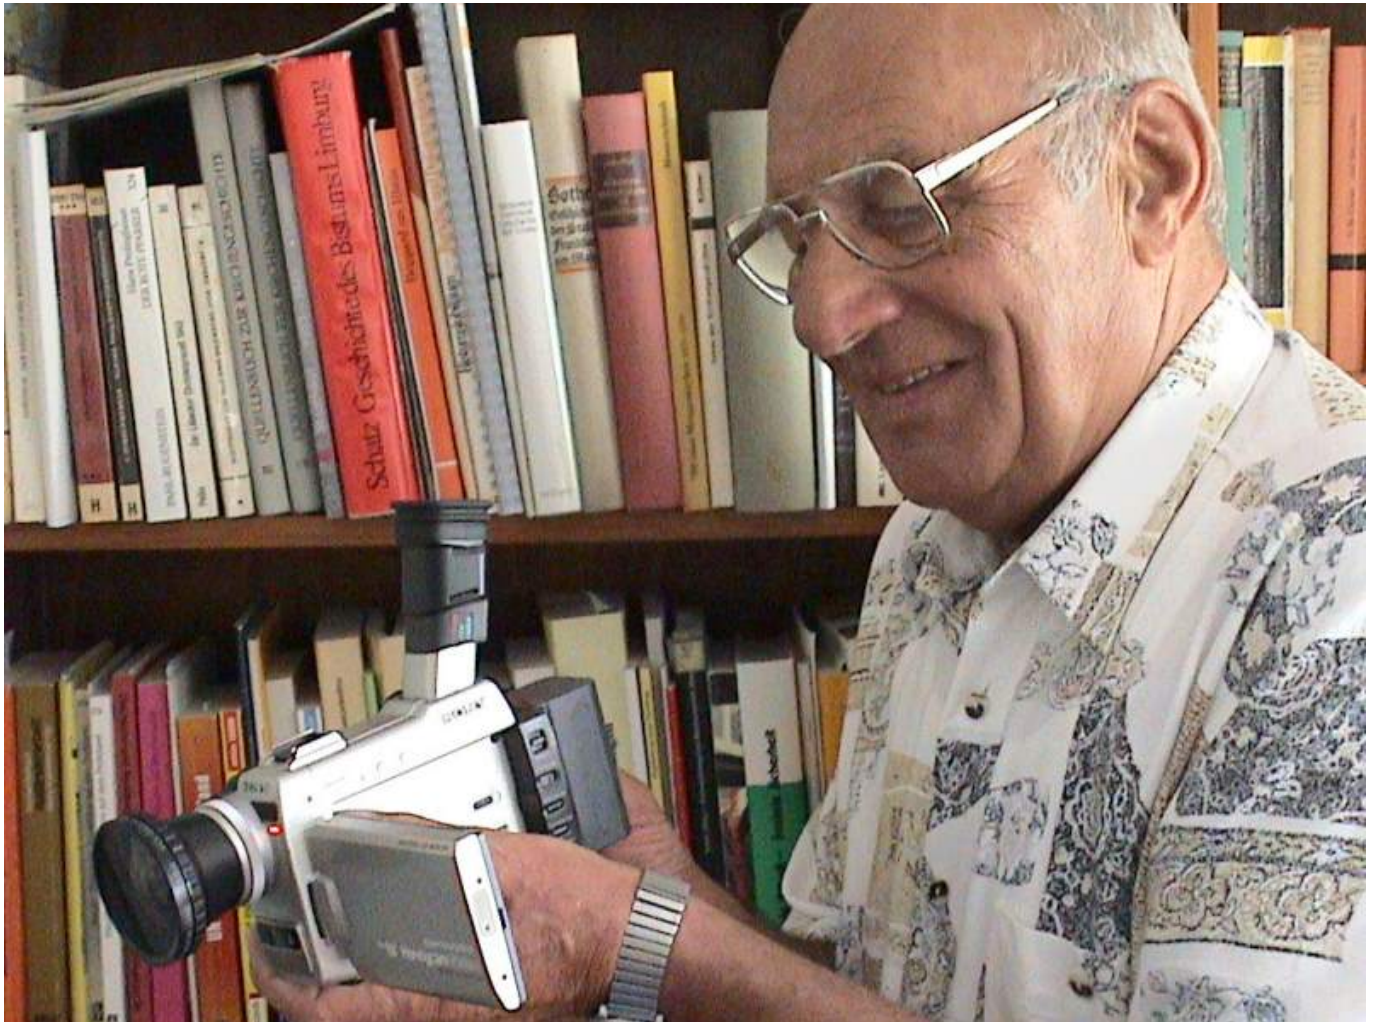

Hartwig, Anahid and Herbert, living now with his sister and brother in Limburg

Anahid documenting the meeting for her family in Sidney

Johanna, sister of Herbert, with Hartwig and Regina

Hartwig met Anahid and her family together with his wife several years ago in Australia

Since Anahid lived in Hofheim as asylum seeker she became friend with Regina